Montessori Elementary Guide (Ages 6–9)

Future School Leadership Opportunity

Mahé Island, Seychelles Indian Ocean

An exciting opportunity has arisen for an outstanding Montessori-trained Primary Teacher to join our small but thriving, well-established Montessori school on the beautiful island of Mahé in the Seychelles. Starting January 2027

We are seeking a passionate, creative and dedicated educator to guide a mixed-age class of just 16 children (6–9 years), fostering independence, curiosity and a lifelong love of learning through authentic Montessori practice.

This role is ideal for an experienced, energetic teacher who is looking not only for a rewarding classroom position, but also the opportunity to develop into a future leader within our school.

We are looking for someone who:

- Holds an AMI or equivalent Montessori Elementary certification (6–12) and experience in a school.
- Additional Leadership qualifications will be a bonus.
- Is fluent in spoken and written English.
- Has a thorough understanding of authentic Montessori philosophy and practice.
- Can confidently integrate Montessori principles with the British Curriculum.
- Creates a calm, stimulating and engaging learning environment where every child can flourish.
- Has a genuine passion for environmental education and helping children develop a meaningful connection with nature.
- Enjoys working within a diverse, international community.
- Has the vision, enthusiasm and leadership potential to become part of the school's future leadership team.

We offer an attractive package with flights, accommodation, and medical insurance.

A genuine pathway towards future School Leadership for the right candidate.

To apply, please send your CV, two references, and a motivation letter to the Head Teacher, Lucy Barois, explaining why you are keen to join our team here in the Seychelles, at lucy@thechildrenshouse.sc
